Grading Rubric For the Final Exam

10 Points: Dataset is preapproved by Dr. Blackmon.

20 Points: Write a clear short statement of the basic hypothesis or question that you are answering and the data that you will be analyzing (max 200 words).

20 Points: Produce a visualization of data:
                 Labeling of axes and legend if needed
                 Mapping
                 Resolution
                 Intuitive and clear

15 Points: Statistical test chosen is reasonable and addresses the question being asked.

15 Points: Result of the statistical test appears sound and reasonable and is in line with the data visualization.

20 Points: Write a clear short statement of the inference that you make based on the statistical analysis that you have performed.